MilliSan H.K

At MilliSan we wrote several large projects in which we had to work with transactions and online banking. We also supported existing ones, improved their functionality and optimized them.

Supported about 3 projects

Wrote my pet project based on the acquired knowledge

Learned how to communicate and interact with a team

Middle Front-end Developer

2023.02 - 2023.05

Turkmenportal

At the Turkmenportal company, I solved micro problems and taught how to work with server side rendering and also supported existing projects using jquery, js, and an older version of React.

Supported about 4 projects

Conducted 3 presentations

It also consolidated the knowledge that I applied in practice

Freelance

2019 - 2023

Freelance & open to work

I worked on various freelance exchanges, helped support projects and also wrote them from scratch.
